

Mrs Moran of Parliament-street.—At Clonmell, Richard Jones, Esq; to Miss Elizabeth Hill, daughter of James Hill, late of Limerick, Esq;—4th, at Killowen, near Killarney, the Rev. Conway Blennerhassett, to Miss Open, daughter of the late Rev. Richard Orpen.—Robert Younge of Limerick, Esq; to Miss Blood, daughter of John Blood, Esq;—Walter Hickman, Esq; of the General-post-office, to Miss Galbraith of Linenhall-street.—9th, at Oldcourt, co. Wicklow, John Barrington of the Queen's co. Esq; to Miss Edwards.—10th, Jonathan Harding of Clonlee, Esq; to Miss Harding, daughter of Jonathan Harding of Ballygady, Esq;—John Macartney of Stafford-street, Esq; to Miss Scriven, daughter of Edward Scriven of Dawson-street, Esq;—13th, John Bayly of Tipperary, Esq; to Miss Arabella Crosbie, daughter of Lancelot Crosbie, Esq;—At Barnalough, co. Tipperary, Samuel Evans, Esq; to Miss Anna Maria Carleton.—20th, at Castle-Townend, co. Cork, Lawrence O'Brien, Esq; to Miss Hewitt, daughter of Henry Hewitt, Esq; Captain of the Beresford Revenue Cutter.—The Rev. Charles Roberts, to Miss Elizabeth Gorges, daughter of the late Richard Gorges, of Kilbrue, co. Meath, Esq.

DEATHS.

March 2, AT Kinsaly, co. Dublin, Hulston Bradley, Esq; formerly of Dame-street, an eminent bookseller, a man whose many virtues, and amiable disposition, must leave a lasting impression on the minds of those who had the happiness of knowing him.—3, In Great-Britain-street, the Right Hon. Lady Donemile, lady to the Right Hon. St. Leger Lord Doneraile.—4th, in Porter's-row, Mr. John Carrick, an eminent painter.—At Southampton in England, the Hon. Richard Dawson, eldest son of the Right Hon. Lord Dartrey.—At his brother's seat in England, James Gisborne, Esq; Lt. Gen. Col. of the 16th regiment of foot, M. of P. for the Bo. Lismore, governor of Charlemont, and governor of the Hibernian Society. 6th, at Ballinure, co. Wicklow, Mrs. Carrol, lady of James Carrol, Esq.—At his house on Essex's Quay, William Darquiere, Esq; an eminent merchant, and one of the oldest Sheriff's Peers of this city.—7th, in Great George's-street, Mrs. French, lady of Arthur French, of Frenchpark, co. Roscommon, Esq;—In Granby-row, Ralph Gore of Barronmont, Esq; M. of P. for the city of Kilkenny.—At his lordship's house Dover-street, London, the Right Hon. John Savile, earl of Mexborough of Lifford, viscount Pollington of Ferns, and baron Pollington of Longford, knight of the most honourable order of the Bath, and formerly member of the British parliament for the borough of Shoreham in Sussex. His lordship was married to Sarah, daughter of Sir Francis Blake Delaval, K. B. by whom he has issue, the Hon. John, viscount Pollington, a minor, now earl of Mexborough, and other children.—8th, at Milkown, co. Dublin, Mrs. Gibbons, lady of Thomas Gibbons of Suffolk-street, Esq; secretary to the incorporated society.—On the Coombe, Mr. Thomas Needham, sen. sincerely regretted by a numerous acquaintance.—9th, At O'Brennan, near Tralee, aged 84, James Gorham, Esq;—10th, in Great-Britain-street, Mrs. Swift, relict of the late William Swift, Esq;—At Colosny, co. Sligo, Bryon Higgins, Esq; M. D.—11th, at Birr, Alexander Ross, Esq; aged 90.—In Peter-street, Wm. Colthurst, Esq; an eminent Attorney.—At Chelsea, in England, of a violent fever, in 33 hours, the Hon. John Howard, aged 18 years, third son of the Right Hon. Ralph, lord Clonmore.—At Belfast, Mrs. Heyland, lady of Hercules Heyland, Esq.—At his house in Newman-street, London, the Right Hon. Richard Aston, second Justice of his majesty's court of king's bench in England, and one of his majesty's most honourable privy council, and formerly lord chief justice of the court of common pleas in this kingdom.—15th, in Capel-street, Robert Carion, Esq.—16th, in Thomas-street, Miss Maquay, daughter of George Maquay, Esq.—At Cork, Robert O'Callaghan, of Clonmeen, Esq.—In Cuffe-street, suddenly, Mrs. Hutchinson, relict of the late Francis Hutchinson, archdeacon of Downe.—At St. Stephen's-green, Mrs. Bryan, relict of James Bryan of Ballentamper, co. Wicklow, Esq.—20th, at the Black-Rock, co. Dublin, Thomas Trulock, jun. Esq; a student of Trinity College, and only son of Thomas Trulock of Dame-street, Esq; one of the Sheriff's Peers of this city.—28th, at Old-castle, co. Meath, Philip Tuite, Esq; his fortune of 1200l. per ann. he has left to Theobald Tuite of said co. Esq.—At Cork, Dr. Nicholas Walsh, in Dorset-street, John Morris of Boddington, in co. Meath, Esq.—In Greek-street, Mrs. Nash, lady of John Nash, Esq.

PROMOTIONS.

SIR Guy Carleton, K. B. to be governor of Charlemont, (Lt. Gen. Gisborne, deceased.)—John Gray, Esq; to be Captain, and Leeds Booth, Esq; to be Capt. Lieut. of the 32d regiment foot.—John Knox, Esq; to be Captain of the 67th foot.—Phillip Ainslie, Esq; now Sir Phillip Ainslie, to be Lt. Col. of the 4th regiment horse.—Richard Gladwell, Esq; to be one of the collectors of the pipe water.—Abraham Fuller of Woodfield, Esq; to be a Justice of the peace for the King's co.—John Fuller of Kinnegad, Esq; to be a Justice of the peace for the co. Westmeath.

BANKRUPTS.

SAMUEL Watson, of Edenderry King's co. Attorney Thomas Bolger.—George Hutson of the city of Dublin, Carrier, Attorney Matthew Dowling.—Andrew Flinn of Fordam's-Alley, co. Dublin, Attorney Owen Hogan.—Wm. Jones of Athboy, co. Meath, Distiller, Attorney John Bury.

* * * The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Crawford, (wife of Mr. James Crawford, of Belfast, merchant,) as mentioned in our last month's Magazine, is a mistake.